

caro kelley

Caro Kelley is a singer and pianist originally from Dayton, Ohio. She has lived everywhere from Arkansas to Vienna and her musical style is genre bending, combining her soulful, jazzy vocals and love of indie rock with the heartfelt sounds of folk and Americana. She is a member of many Munich-based bands as a singer, keyboardist, and banjoist.

Caro has been working as a freelance Musician in Munich since 2018, performing and teaching throughout the city and Bavaria as well as working as a studio musician. She is known for her vocal improvisation and skillful harmonies, as well as a commanding stage presence.

In early 2021, Caro released her debut single "I Know A Bird" followed with her debut EP, "Another Thing Dear." Both were recorded at the Munich Sessions studio. In April she released a video with Alvarez Guitars covering Peter Gabriel's "Solsbury Hill," and her cover of the same song was released on April 30th, 2021. She will be back in the studio soon recording a new project due to be released in autumn 2021.
